

PERSONAL AND PERTINENT.

Mrs. Mecca Frey and little boy arrived in the city Monday evening from Brenon, Texas.

Dr. Ruff informs us that it is a mistake about him going to St. Louis. He says his family will go to St. Louis for a few months, but he will remain in the city.

W. T. Thornton, who is here getting up a city directory, is now busy numbering the houses. The numbers on the buildings gives the city quite a business appearance.

Phil. A. Hafner, of the Scott County Newsboy, is here taking in the big Fair.

Al Oswald has a fine display of the product of the farm and garden at the Fair.

The display of corn at the Fair does not look like we have had a poor season for corn raising.

Only a few more days until the big Ringling show.

The water works are progressing rapidly. Fair week has caused no delay to them.

Charley Lewis is painting the roof of Mr. Houck's houses on Main and Independence streets.

Otto Frederick is making preparations to have a new sidewalk put down in front of his dwelling on Good Hope street.

Our streets were somewhat deserted to-day but not so at the Fair, the crowd there being large.

ARKANSAS STORM.

Further Reports from Devastated Little Rock.

WRECKED AND RUINED BUILDINGS

Render the Streets Impassable—The Scene of Desolation as Witnessed by Daylight—Wrecks of the Insane Asylum and Penitentiary.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 4.—Never in the history of Little Rock was there such a scene of wrecked and ruined buildings as was presented on the streets of this city yesterday morning. The streets were almost impassable and great yawning chasms in brick fronts told of the fury of the storm. The damage will aggregate about $1,000,000. The only insurance held by the sufferers amounts to $2,500. Almost every building between Main and Markham and Third and Main streets was unroofed and in numerous instances entire fronts were leveled to the ground. On East Markham street the destruction to property was greater than elsewhere. Several large buildings were leveled, and not one escaped injury. Windows and doors were blown out, tin roofs carried away, telephone and electric light wires blown to the ground and poles twisted off at the curbing.

It was at the insane asylum where the most complete wreck was to be seen. The buildings, built by the state at a cost of $300,000, are located on a prominence three miles west of the business portion of the city, and offered a splendid target for the fury of the storm.

Thousands of people in buggies and on horseback thronged the road to the ruins. The ruin was not complete, but the damage is estimated at from $75,000 to $100,000. There was one death here, Dr. J. T. Ingate, second assistant physician. He and Dr. Robinson, the superintendent, were standing in the hall talking just before the storm struck, and as they started to go to their rooms the two towers crowning the main office portion crashed through the three stories, burying him under the debris of one of them.

Dr. Robinson had a narrow escape, but by pressing up against the wall while bricks and heavy timbers were flying about his head in the dark—the lights having been at once extinguished—he succeeded in getting out without injury. A heavy force of men worked all night and yesterday forenoon in removing the debris to find the body of the unfortunate physician, but his remains were not recovered until 11 o'clock. He was found under a mass of brick and timbers in the vestibule of the main building, lying on his face, and mangled beyond recognition. His remains were forwarded to his parents at Mobile, Ala., last night.

Besides the destruction wrought in the main building, the east wall of the male ward was completely torn away. Wards 1, 3, 5 and 7 are a total wreck. The roof is blown off and debris has been found half a mile east.

Pandemonium reigned after the fury of the storm had been spent. About fifteen inmates escaped, but all except seven were recaptured up to noon yesterday.

The following are still missing and it is not known whether they were killed or are at large:

Quincy Jones. Dennis Callahan. James McPeters. William M. Miller. William Surratt. Joseph W. Johnson. George W. Ackerman.

The storm did great damage at the state penitentiary, estimated to aggregate $50,000. The south half of the cell house was completely torn away and carried outside the walls. The windows were all broken out, but very little damage was done to the interior. Many of the convicts were in their cells at the time and were not hurt.

The new workhouse, chapel and kitchen were badly wrecked. The third story and the east wall of the second story were blown down, and are lying between it and the house—a vast mass of brick and mortar. The west wall was cracked at the floor and inclined to the east about 45 degrees. It was in this building that the only death occurred. J. F. Griffith, a white man, sent up from Clay county for incest, was descending the stairway from the third story when the wall caved in and buried him under the debris. His remains, badly mangled, were removed from the ruins this morning. He was a native of Montgomery county, Ky., and has a son named Eugene Griffith in Chicago. The hospital building was uninjured except for the wrecking of several chimneys and a portion of the roof. The two-story stable, blacksmith shop and woodshed, that stood in the center of the yard, was badly wrecked, being torn down below the second story. Several head of stock were killed.

The Heaviest Losers:

Insane asylum, $150,000; penitentiary, $50,000; property of the state: Dickinson Hardware Co., $2,500; Pendley E. Jones Co., $4,000; H. H. Rottaker, $15,000; G. F. Faucett, $20,000; J. P. McCarthy, $8,000; Louis Volmer, $5,000; Ralph Goodrich, $5,000; A. Lofton, $2,000; Mrs. C. P. Redmond, $10,000; Capitol hotel, $2,000; Arkansas stables, $2,000; Bell Telephone Co., $2,000; Sam Rudolph & Co., $5,000; E. Ellenbogen, $4,000; Arkansas Carpet and Furniture Co., $20,000; Little Rock Tent and Awning Co., $2,000; Wilson & Webb Stationery Co., $1,500; W. P. Homan, $2,000; J. W. Bidelman, $1,500. Several hundred others sustained losses ranging from $500 to $1,500.

Fully 200 citizens escaped death in a most miraculous manner. Telegrams from all sections of the country offering assistance were received by Mayor Hall yesterday. All the injured with few exceptions are doing nicely.

FOR WANT OF FUNDS

The Extension of the Free Delivery System has Been Indefinitely Postponed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—At the beginning of every quarter of the year it has heretofore been the custom of the postoffice department to extend the free delivery service to those towns whose receipts had so increased as to warrant such an extension. For months in many small towns where this system has been in use the government has been steadily losing money on account of the receipts running behind the expenses.

Acting Postmaster-General Jones, when asked yesterday as to the future policy of the department in the matter, said: "The extension of the free delivery service to towns has been indefinitely postponed, owing to the fact that the appropriations for the year will not be sufficient to maintain the service in any more towns. If we should extend it to all the towns that are now asking for it, the department would need at least $500,000 for that purpose. It will be the policy of the department, in the future, to confine the extension of the free delivery service to towns which we know will have receipts sufficient to pay expenses."

THE SECOND CONVICTION

Of the Last of the Seven Choctaw Indians Sentenced to be Shot Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Acting Secretary Sims of the interior department late last evening received a telegram from Tusahoma, I. T., stating that the supreme court of the Choctaw Indian nation had confirmed the second conviction in the lower court in the case of the last one of the seven Choctaw Indians who were a year ago sentenced to be shot for murder committed as a result of differences arising over political affairs. The telegram was from the Indian's counsel, and to prevent the decree of the court being carried into effect he asked the intervention of the interior department.

Acting Secretary Sims, after a consultation with Gen. Armstrong, acting commissioner of Indian affairs, sent a reply asking for further information before the department could take any action.

The other six Choctaws accused of committing murder were acquitted of the charge and set free.

As there is supposed to be some prejudice against this Indian among the jury that heard the case, the interior department interfered and he was given a new trial, with the final result as above stated.

M'KINLEY IN KANSAS

The Sunflower State Abilize with Republican Enthusiasm.

HUTCHINSON, Kan., Oct. 4.—That portion of the prairies of the Sunflower state running southwest from Kansas City to Hutchinson was ablaze with republican enthusiasm yesterday. The citadel of populism was stormed by Gov. McKinley, and miners, farmers, laborers, business men, members of various republican clubs and school children turned out in tens of thousands to greet the champion of high tariff and listen to his counsel.

During the fourteen hours ending at 10 o'clock last night, he delivered thirteen speeches to audiences that aggregated not less than 100,000 souls, and which were gathered from the country tributary to 900 miles of railroad, as the crowd flies.

At midnight he left for Lincoln and Omaha. For the stretch of country to be covered between daylight and the arrival at the capital of Nebraska at 2 o'clock, nearly a dozen meetings have been arranged. To-night he speaks at Omaha.

ATTACKED BY THE PEOPLE.

More Than Three Hundred Turkish and Kurdish Soldiers Killed.

VIENNA, Oct. 4.—Advices from Erzeroum, Armenia, say that the Turkish and Kurdish soldiery at Sassun have been attacked by the people of that region and more than 300 of them killed and wounded. The Turkish troops are represented as being in a pitiable condition, their sufferings being greatly increased by the severe weather prevailing. Four inches of snow fell in the district of Salzburg Tuesday, and at Ischl snow fell for eight hours without cessation. The people are greatly in fear of avalanches.

Nothing Pending Between France and England.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—A dispatch to the Daily News from Paris says there is nothing pending between France and England sufficiently grave to justify a scare. Madagascar is the only black spot on the horizon, and according to Paris opinion Great Britain ought to restrain her officers from drilling Hova troops or to insist that they quit the British service; but there is no sign of a national proxyism against England. The anti-government newspapers, seeking to make capital, denounce the lethargy of the cabinet in defending the interests of France.

To Restore the Whipping Post.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 4.—Commodore Eldridge T. Gerry addressed the final session of the convention of the Humane societies yesterday in favor of introducing the whipping post into the state of New York to be used especially in the punishment of those who are cruel to children.

Dr. Thomas A. Hendricks, of Rochester, a Catholic priest, spoke in the same line and also thought that corporal punishment would prevent many of the abuses that are now heaped upon children.

Hill and Whitney.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Senator Hill was in consultation with Wm. C. Whitney yesterday afternoon at the Murray Hill hotel. Mr. Whitney afterward said they had merely talked over the situation, and no definite plans had resulted from the meeting.

PROF. DAVID SWING.

The Great Preacher Succumbs to Acute Jaundice.

AND DIES SURROUNDED BY FRIENDS.

The Birth, Childhood, Youth and Manhood of the Deceased—His Trial for Heresy—How He Alayed Bitter Feelings.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Prof. David Swing died at his home on the Lake Shore drive at 5:15 o'clock yesterday. He was taken ill about a week ago with gastric fever, which developed in a few days into acute jaundice. He had been in a comatose condition for thirty-six hours before his death, and the end was momentarily expected since that time. Mrs. Ricker and Mrs. Starring, the professor's two married daughters, and the immediate members of his family were at the bedside when Dr. Davis pronounced life extinct.

Prof. Swing's ancestry was German, coming to this country before the thirteen original states had been established. David, the youngest son, was born in Cincinnati, August 23, 1830, his father dying two years later. When David was 7 years of age his mother removed to Reedsburg, O., which was the family residence for three years. A settlement was then made on a farm near Williamsburg, where, during the following six years David was a farmer boy and a scholar in the public school. On this farm was laid the foundation for that sturdy manhood and remarkable self-poise so noticeable in after years. He studied and taught himself so perfectly that at the age of 18 he entered Miami university at Oxford, O. At this same school were Benjamin Harrison and Whitelaw Reid. Young Swing supported himself by working and teaching school during vacations. His intention was to be a lawyer, but the religious element of his mind predominated, and he studied for the Presbyterian ministry. In 1856, Prof. Swing accepted the pastorate of the Westminster Presbyterian church in this city. This service was interrupted by the great fire of 1871, which not only swept away his church, but all his personal belongings, leaving him with nothing but the clothes on his back. Within a year his church was rebuilt on the old site.

About this time occurred the most important event in the great minister's career—his trial by the Chicago presbytery on a charge of heresy preferred by Rev. Dr. Francis I. Patton, then editor of the Interior, and now president of Princeton college. These charges, of which there were twenty-eight specifications of lapses from Presbyterian doctrine, were not sustained, there being sixty-one members in the presbytery and only thirteen votes against him. But the subsequent feeling was so bitter that Prof. Swing brought matters to a close by resigning his pastorate, a large number of his friends going with him and forming the Central church, in which Prof. Swing has since labored with great success. Prof. Swing was a man of broad culture and extensive learning and his library is one of the best in the state.

THAT CABINET COUNCIL.

The Central News Adheres to Its Assertion as to Why It Was Called.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The Central News adheres to its assertion that the summoning of the cabinet council is due to the fact that France has made representations to the British government concerning England's alleged responsibility for the attitude of the Hova government in continuing their strenuous opposition to the treaty rights of France in Madagascar. It is also claimed that France has protested against the shipment of munitions of war from England to Madagascar and the enrollment of British subjects in the military service of the Hovas. It is known that an ex-cavalry officer in the British army has gone out to Madagascar to act as commander-in-chief of the Hova forces, he having taken part in the Hova campaign against the French in Madagascar in 1885.

Another British officer has engaged to serve as adjutant-general in the Hova army, and hundreds of settlers in South Africa, of all nationalities, are prepared to join the Hovas in the event of war, they having been offered five shillings a day and a plot of land if the Hovas are successful.

The Hova army now consists of two divisions of infantry, well armed and drilled, and the Hova authorities claim that they will be able before January 1 to take the field with 100,000 men.

Later advices say there is no foundation for the report that the Madagascar ports have been blockaded.

Foreign diplomats regard the situation as hopeful and believe the differences will be settled amicably between England and France.

Madagascar Ports Not Blockaded.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Reuters agency virtually denies the report it circulated yesterday that the Madagascar ports had been blockaded. It expresses the opinion that the report arose from the fact that French war ships had been ordered to exercise increased surveillance over the Madagascar coast to prevent the landing of munitions of war.

Thrown from His Horse. GENEESE, N. Y., Oct. 4.—J. F. Mackie, a resident of Chicago, while riding in the fox hunt of the Genesee Hunt club yesterday morning, was thrown from his horse and badly bruised, but it is hoped not seriously injured.
